The ongoing Service Manual Study Workshop is starting our Concepts on September 1.

Come read, share and/or listen to how these wonderful principles can be applied in our daily lives.

There is plenty of room.

Come any time.

The study of any Concept will help me have a better week.

Example: Concept 7. The birthday person may have the 'Traditional' right to choose dinner, but I have the 'Legal' right to decline Bern's.

Example: Concepts 4,5. I thought they owed me an amend for not following 'our' plan, then I studied some Concepts and realized I had not let them participate in choosing the plan and I had not listened to the minority opinion.
